

Bulldog Growler

February 6, 2019

Volume 20, Edition 25

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT Hailey Turner

By Bailey Moore

This week's senior is Hailey Turner. She is the daughter of Katherine Martorano and Kevin Turner and she is an only child. Her hobbies include dance, softball, and swimming. After high school, her plans are to go to college to become a RN. Hailey's advice to underclassmen is to stay on top of your grades and always try. Her favorite music is pop or country. She works after school and on the weekends at Arab Station and works about 32 hours a week. Hailey's going to miss her friends the most.

No
School
2-18-19

The Truth on The Three Little Pigs

Madison Younger, Jericha Miller, Emily Pickett, Hannah Steinberg, Caleb Smith, Jessica Winder, Haley Gunn, Mike Siebert, Ashley Rutherford, Eythan Burkman

The Creative Writing Class at Zalma High School put on a play on Friday, January 25th. The play was called The Truth on the Three Little Pigs by Hannah Steinberg, a senior in the creative writing class. The play put a twist on the original short story The Three Little Pigs by saying that the three pigs bullied the wolf, so in return the wolf blew down the three little pigs' houses. During an interview with Hannah, we asked her why she wrote the play and she responded, "I was feeling inspired by the three little pigs." The class did the play in front of the kindergarten-sixth graders at the citizenship assembly. The assembly was to "show respect to the younger generation." The play went great and the kids loved it. Good job Hannah.