Welcoming Mr. Dunn as the new ELA Teacher

High school junior, Mikayla Sargent, introduces herself to Mr. Dunn.

By Alexis Hubbert

This year Zalma welcomed James Dunn as the new English teacher. Mr. Dunn graduated high school from Poplar Bluff in 1980. He then graduated from Southwest Baptist in 1987. His teaching experience has included Kennett, Poplar Bluff, Ellsinore, and Shanghai, China. Mr. Dunn was in Shanghai for 5 months. Mr. Dunn says, "The students, people, and job were wonderful. The country was very beautiful, but being that far from home and being alone was terrible. I was happy for the experience, but I won't repeat it." Welcome to Zalma, Mr. Dunn!

Elementary Buildings get a make over

A new look for the elementary buildings.

Cole Shelby, Zalma class of 2016, cleans windows in the new elementary lobby.

By Michael Siebert

Over the summer Zalma Schools renovated their buildings. There has been work done to the elementary, the high school, and the gym. In the gym lobby, the concession stand has been remodeled with new counter tops and freshly painted cabinets. In the elementary there was a new concrete foundation poured and the open space where the sidewalk was completely enclosed, creating a lobby. In the high school there was a retaining wall built and a handicap ramp built as well. Bathrooms in both the elementary and high school were refinished with new stalls and fresh paint.
